The Crown Hill Homecoming was a great evening of re-connecting friends and family. Special thanks to Delmar, Jeannie and Dave Schrock who did a lot of work ahead of time to prepare for the event!

August 28. Team sign-up day during Sunday School. Everyone is asked to sign up for one of the three ministry teams:

- Worship: Facilitate and challenge the congregation towards authentic worship. Ensuring that responsibilities are covered for all worship services.
- Missions: Facilitate and challenge the congregation towards missional endeavors. Ensuring that the Crown Hill congregation is working towards reaching out both locally and globally.
- Formation: Facilitate and challenge the congregation to create a structured environment in our church community. Ensuring that there will be formational and educational opportunities for Crown Hill attendees to be more Christlike.

What It Means To Sign Up And Be A Part Of A Team:

You are asked to sign up for where you feel called to serve the church, bearing in mind your interests and your gifts. If you sign up for a certain team, you can always serve another team if there is a need or if you have availability and interest. Your primary energy should go towards the team you sign up for, with any extra willingness to help going towards other teams as the need arises.

There are varying levels of commitment that can occur when signing up for your team. You may choose to serve in a role that has weekly or monthly commitments, while others may need to serve the team more intermittently and upon the request of other team members or leaders.

Signing up for a team does not bind you to every event or service that the team is involved with, but it does show your willingness to be called upon.

There is no need to have a strong creative vision for your team or for a specific role, you can be either a leader or a participant.
